

July 2020 eMUSE

Our mission is to preserve and promote Jewish heritage, culture, history and community through art and education.

The Sherwin Miller Museum of Jewish Art is now open!
Please take a moment to familiarize yourself with our new rules and policies before visiting the Museum.

General Rules:

- To ensure member's/visitor health and safety, as well as enjoyment of our Museum, we will continue to review and update these guidelines regularly to remain in line with federal, state and local guidelines.
- Hours: Monday-Friday 10am-5pm; Saturday 12-5pm; Sunday 1pm-5pm.
- There will be no charge for your visit through December 31, 2020.
- The Museum has the right to refuse service to anyone exhibiting symptoms or not following facility code of conduct.
- If you are sick, stay home. If you have a temperature of 100.4 or higher, stay home. If someone in your house is sick, stay home. If you have allergies and can't control sneezing, stay home.
- All members, visitors and staff are required to receive a temperature check and health screening before entering the building. Anyone with a temperature of 100.4 degrees or higher, or who is exhibiting other symptoms, will not be allowed in the Museum.
- You must wear a mask (face covering for your nose and mouth) when entering the building. Your nose and mouth must remain covered at all times.
- Groups of 8 people or less from one family are allowed to group together.
- Social distancing, minimum of six feet, is required for all others visiting.
- Please enter and exit at the Museum front doors. Visitors will not be allowed to come through the Federation doors.
- The Museum will only allow up to 30% capacity.
- The Museum will not have tours or docent-led tours this summer.

Coronavirus/COVID-19 Warning and Disclaimer

Coronavirus/COVID-19 is an extremely contagious virus that spreads easily through person-to-person contact. Federal and state authorities recommend social distancing as a means to prevent the spread of the virus. COVID-19 can lead to severe illness, personal injury, permanent disability and death.

Visiting the Museum could increase the risk of contracting COVID-19. The Museum in no way warrants that COVID-19 infection will not occur through a visit to the Museum.

What we are doing:

- We are following CDC, Federal, State and local guidelines and recommendations.
- Our staff, members and visitors are required to wear masks (face coverings) at all times while in the building.
- All JFT/JCC/SMMJA staff are screened each day for COVID-19 symptoms, and temperature checks are required before they begin work each day.
- The cleaning agents used to sanitize our facility and equipment are EPA compliant to neutralize viruses, including COVID-19.
- The Museum's cleanliness will be monitored every hour to ensure visitors and members have a safe experience.

[FORMAL INVITATION TO FOLLOW]

Sacal: A Universal Mexican
Sculptures by the late José Sacal

José Sacal is undoubtedly one of the most prominent representatives of contemporary sculptural art. Known for his experimentation and freedom, Sacal recognized no boundaries in his sources of inspiration and was not afraid to find new meaning in old forms. Sacal's work has been showcased in more than 40 individual exhibitions and dozens of collaborations in Mexico and around the world. In 2006, he became the first Mexican to have his sculpture permanently displayed in the country of China. Today, more than 20 Sacal sculptures can be found in public spaces across Mexico, Israel, and the United States, including Los Angeles and Washington, D.C.

The sculptures featured at the Sherwin Miller Museum comprise two series: The Paraphrase, inspired by distinguished artists like Michelangelo, Frida Kahlo and Picasso; and Characters of Impact, in which Sacal recreates unmistakable historical figures like Einstein and Churchill.

Going Home, Jewish Romania in the Early 21st Century
by Louis and Ronnie Davidson

Going Home, Jewish Romania in the early 21st Century

Featuring photographs and cultural objects collected by Louis and Ronnie Davidson.

Now through August 23, 2020

In the first quarter of the 21st century, clothing, rugs, dolls and masks in Romania look exactly as they did in a previous era. A visit to Jewish Romania is like a visit to a time before the electrical and industrial revolutions. Photographs and cultural objects collected by Louis and Ronnie Davidson from 2003-2010.

Tours and Volunteer Opportunities when The Museum resumes regular operations.

If you would like to book a docent-led tour or check for an available date, please contact

Tours Coordinator,

Lorri Krisman, at 918.492.1818

or email her at tours@jewishmuseum.net.

The Museum offers a comprehensive training program that prepares each docent to lead tours for school groups and general audiences.

Tours are available every day the Museum is open, providing a flexible schedule for volunteers.

Docents are trained to take groups through all galleries.

Anyone wishing to become a docent should contact Docent Chairman Stan Shapiro, Executive Director Drew Diamond, or Director of Holocaust Education, Nancy Pettus, at 918.492.1818.

Those interested will receive an information manual regarding the Holocaust and Jewish History and Culture, and will need to be available to shadow docents leading tours and to attend the art exhibit orientations and monthly meetings of the Committee of Docents.

Admissions desk volunteers welcome and direct visitors to the Museum, answer phones and inquiries, help process admission and merchandise sales, and assist staff with special events. Shifts are normally three hours in length, and a variety of hours are available.

Volunteers are essential to the success of the Museum, helping to avoid salary and labor costs associated with day-to-day activities and exhibits installation.

Contact Tours Coordinator, Lorri Krisman, at 918.492.1818 or email tours@jewishmuseum.net
to work with other dedicated, caring, enthusiastic, and friendly volunteers and staff.
